DEDICATION

The Graduating Class of 1986 dedicates this Memory Book to Sister Margaret Johnson on the occasion of her twenty-fifth anniversary at the City House of the Sacred Heart.

We have indeed been fortunate in having a person of Sister Johnson's stature and dedication to guide us along our way. We will always respect her for her wisdom and devotion, and we will always remember her for her love and concern.

Sister Johnson, the Class of 1986 thanks you most sincerely and wishes you many more years to perform God's work at Sacred Heart and in all you undertake.

MOTHER JOHNSON'S MESSAGE

To the Graduates of This Very Special Anniversary Year

As we celebrate together the 125th Anniversary of the City House, our focus turns inevitably to the past as we reflect on the history and traditions of the school and the teachings and example of its inspiration, Saint Madeleine-Sophie Barat.

My wish for each of you is that you begin your new lives with a deep sense of the traditions of the school and that you be ever mindful that each of you is indeed "rooted and growing in love". May you derive strength from this thought and, with your roots firmly planted, may you continue to blossom, taking charge of your own lives, accepting the challenge to discover the many ways to grow that will offer themselves to you.

In the words of St. Paul "May Christ, out of the rich treasury of his glory, strengthen you through His Spirit with a power that reaches your innermost being . . . may your lives be rooted in love, founded on love . . . may you be filled with all the completion God has to give . . ." (Eph. 3, 14-17)

Lacking originality and humour I shall now try to sum up 5 years in 83 rows of 11. In the course of my being here, I have forgotten how to spell my name have acquired the much sought after skill of being able to complete 10 page essays at Deiente and have completely altered my eating habits (Gee, Deedee, I've never eaten Jello THAT way before!) My sidekick and I can often be seen sitting on radiators warming our buns, time-warping on desks, eating fruit salad or shopping for multicolored lightbulbs. For those of you who made it interesting: Cath, Cathy (can I borrow your markers again?), Rita (Got any food?) and Deedee - "When will the morning come? I wait in darkness alone will the sun ever rise again." M.F. Adieu

I (Scottie, Cath, Cathy, or Catherine) got here in Secondary 3, being once again a new student. Anyway, it did not take long for me to be known as the short kid who always had something to say and I could frequently be seen wandering in late to school. (Ring any bells Allison?) "I must say", I have had a super time at Sacred Heart and I have a great bunch of people to thank. Alex, think of me when you wear your famous blue sweater. Julie, you're so... Can I borrow... Ashes to Ashes. Anupa, "I've got to go." Nat, how did we ever get through those Chem labs? Ann, do you want to borrow my markers? Deedee, "Be there or be a circle"... Keep bombing down those hills!! DOG BISCUITS

What fills every Secondary V's mouth at every opportunity? What can disappear faster than you can say "picklepudding"? The answer is simple: dog biscuits. What exactly are dog biscuits? They are Mr. Christie Social Tea Cookies under a pseudonym.

I have always wondered what makes dog biscuits so appealing. I am certain that if my mother bought them to fill our pantry I would turn up my nose in disgust. There is however something special about dog biscuits and Sacred Heart, for only at 3635 Atwater can the dullest of all cookies taste so yummy.

So what exactly is so appealing about these so-called dog biscuits? Maybe it's the fact that they're so generously available from Mother Johnson especially who always seems to have an inexhaustible supply in her office awaiting students. Perhaps it is the fact that you can store at least a dozen in your pocket for future attacks of the "munchies". Another attraction could be that they are not very fattening. Rumour among the Secondary V's has it that they only contain 7.5 calories each. This may not be very many calories, but on the other hand, who can eat only one? Certainly not any Sacred Hearter that I am aware of, for, one must, in true Sacred Heart tradition, devour dog biscuits by the dozen or not at all.

In Secondary I, I was oblivious to the gourmet delight of dog biscuits. As I grew older, I, like others, grew wise regarding them. Now, as it is my final year at Sacred Heart, I am enjoying my last dog biscuits and cherishing every bite, for they will never taste the same again.

Please pass the cookie tin.

125TH ANNIVERSARY "Rooted and Growing in Love"

This year is a very special year for the members of the Sacred Heart family. Not only are we, the graduating class, moving on in life, we are also celebrating the founding of our school.

Mother Trincano founded the Convent of the Sacred Heart, now the Sacred Heart School of Montreal, one hundred and twenty-five years ago. To celebrate this joyous event, several activities were planned.

To officially commence the celebration, a launching party was held November 21, 1985, when a play and the ribbon cutting ceremony were presented.

The school was assembled in the Recreation Room for this event. The play provided a short trip down memory lane, which touched the hearts of many staff members, as well as enlightened the students about the lives of Sacred Heart girls in 1861.

To officially launch the celebration, a unique ribbon cutting ceremony took place. A large box, constructed to represent our school, was bound by a blue ribbon, which upon cutting, released many blue and gray helium balloons. It was indeed an original launching ceremony!

Other traditional scholastic affairs, such as the House Fair, focused on the anniversary theme, "Rooted and growing in love".

The final affair celebrating this special anniversary was the gala, May 9, 1986, open-house weekend. Each scholastic department headed informative displays which were open for viewing by alumnae, friends, relatives, parents, students, and religious groups.

The entire celebration of our anniversary holds many fond memories in our hearts. We, the graduates and students as well as staff members of the Sacred Heart definitely are "rooted and growing in love"

SEC. V RETREAT

CHRISTMAS WISHES

The Christmas holidays were off to a wonderful beginning with the celebration of the much anticipated 'Christmas Wishes'. This tradition, upheld by the City Housers embodies a spirit of the true meaning of Christmas with a sense of joy and togetherness.

December arrived with preparations for what would undoubtedly be a highlight of the school year already underway. As is customary at the Sacred Heart, the student body united in what would be a concentrated effort to ensure the success of 'Wishes'. Ideas were set into motion, invitations, decorations, cards, and gifts were created and new friends were made as December 21st drew closer.

The morning of 'Wishes' was greeted enthusiastically. Mother Johnson, the Faculty, and the students gathered in the reception room to view a French play. Also on the morning's agenda was an address by Vice President, Chantal Damas, the presentations of gifts, distribution of treats and finally House Point counting. Ending the festivities, was the traditional Eucharistic celebration, held in the school chapel. Upon the altar adorned with decorations designed by the students.

Christmas Wishes 1985 was an exceptionally significant event for the Secondary V class as it was the final one in which they would be in attendance. Consequently, it will be the one which will be remembered most.

1985-86 MEMORY BOOK COMMITTEE

A MESSAGE FROM THE MOTHERS' GUILD

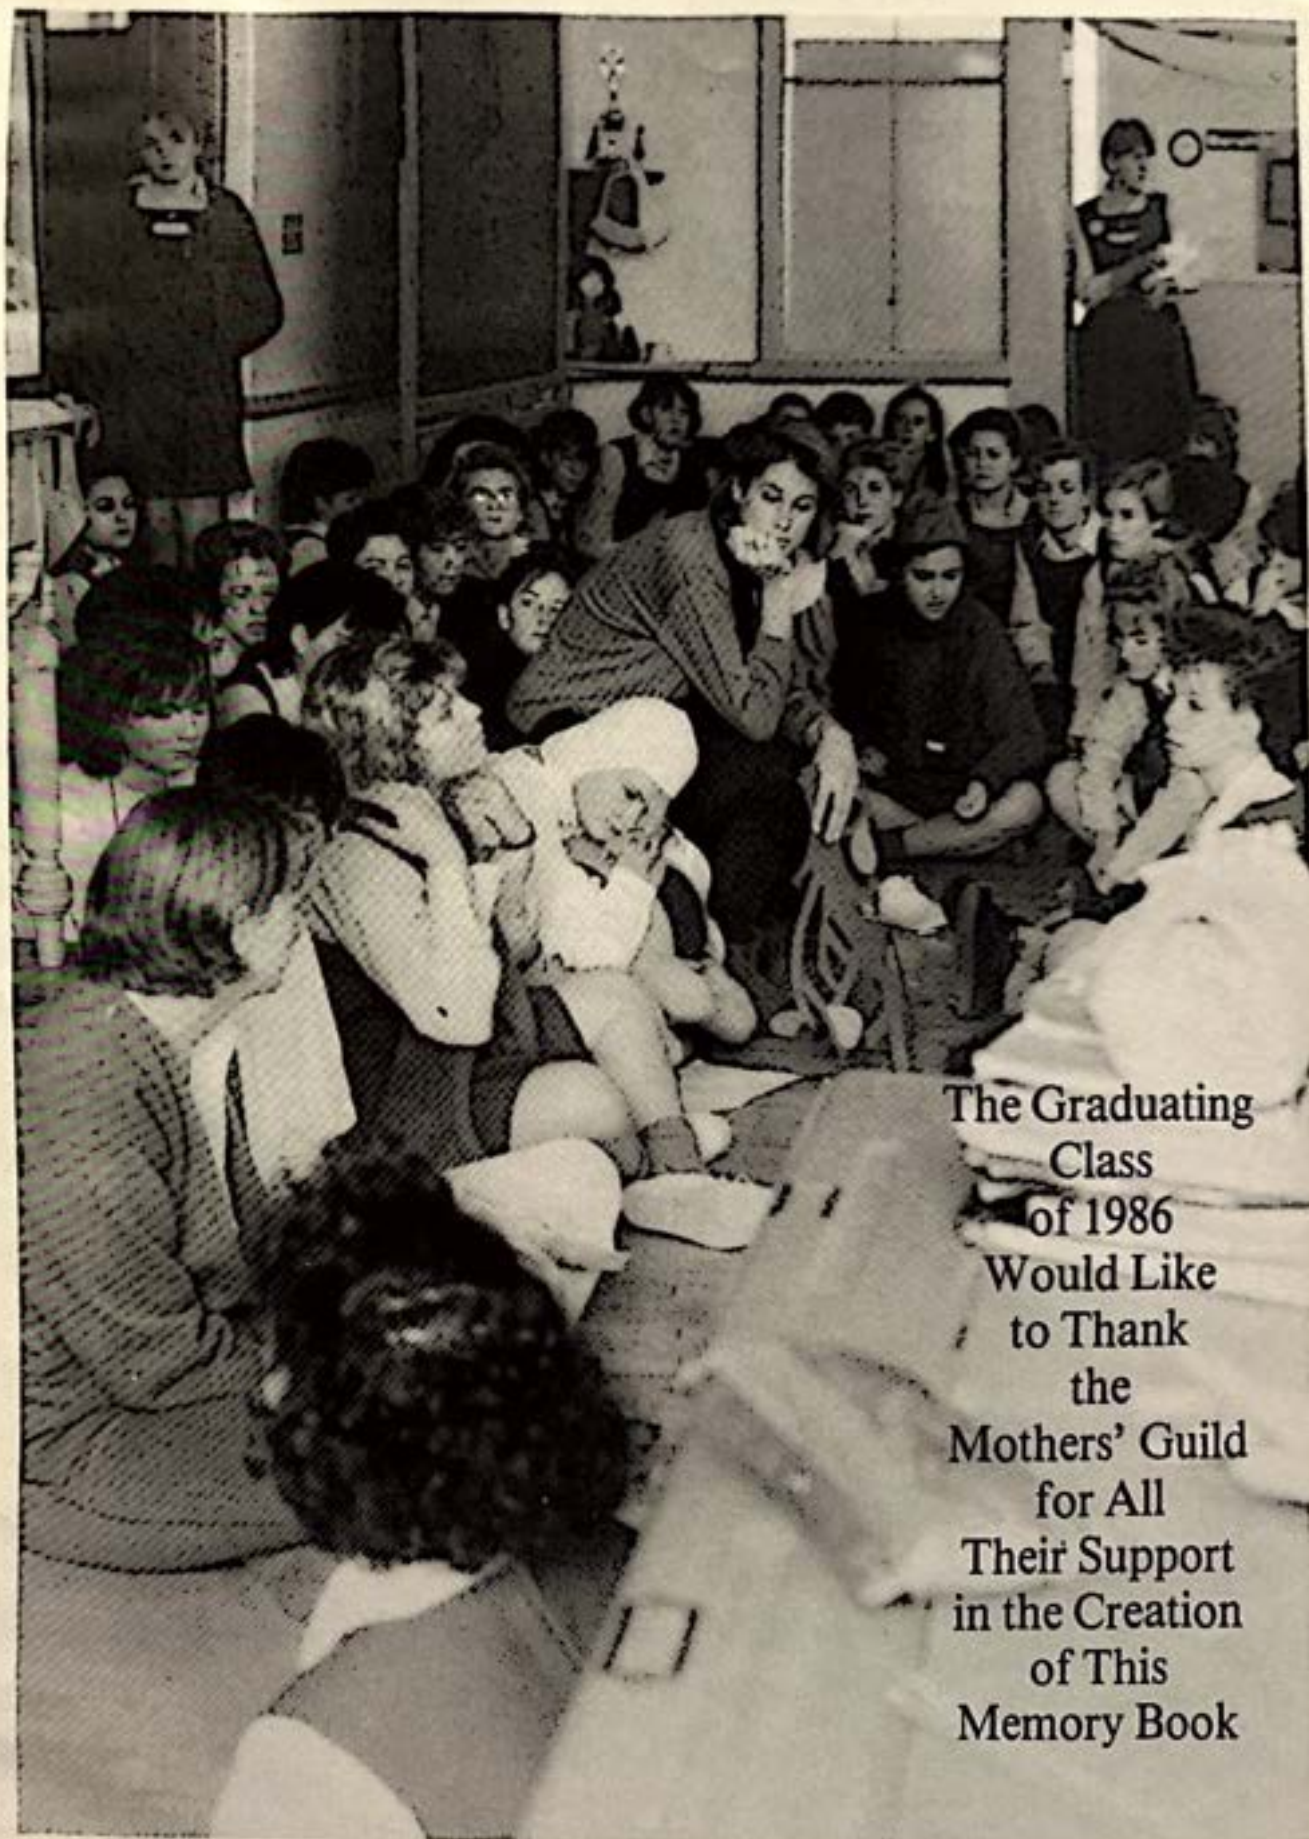

As the graduating class of 1986, you have experienced a memorable year of special events to mark the 125th anniversary of your school. You have had the unique opportunity to observe the deep feelings of loyalty and gratitude displayed by the religious, the parents and the alumnae towards this school. You have been presented with a panorama of illustrations, written texts, photographs, and drama to portray the historical significance of the Sacred Heart School in our community. The continuity of a loving Christian environment that is so tangible within the Sacred Heart family is acknowledged in the 1986 theme - ROOTED AND GROWING IN LOVE.

Your high school education, rooted in this school, is your passport for a future that we hope will be blessed with many rewarding opportunities. Graduation concludes one chapter in your lives and is the commencement of another. Although it is difficult for you to comprehend fully the complete significance of being a member of the world-wide Sacred Heart family, in future years you will come to appreciate the warmth and sense of belonging that is yours to share. This wonderful GIFT of acceptance and love within a vast, caring family is a haven of peace, security, comfort and friendship. It is a blessing that you do not realize is yours until the overwhelming warmth of a shared moment encompasses you - perhaps in a far-away corner of the world or at a time of loneliness and isolation.

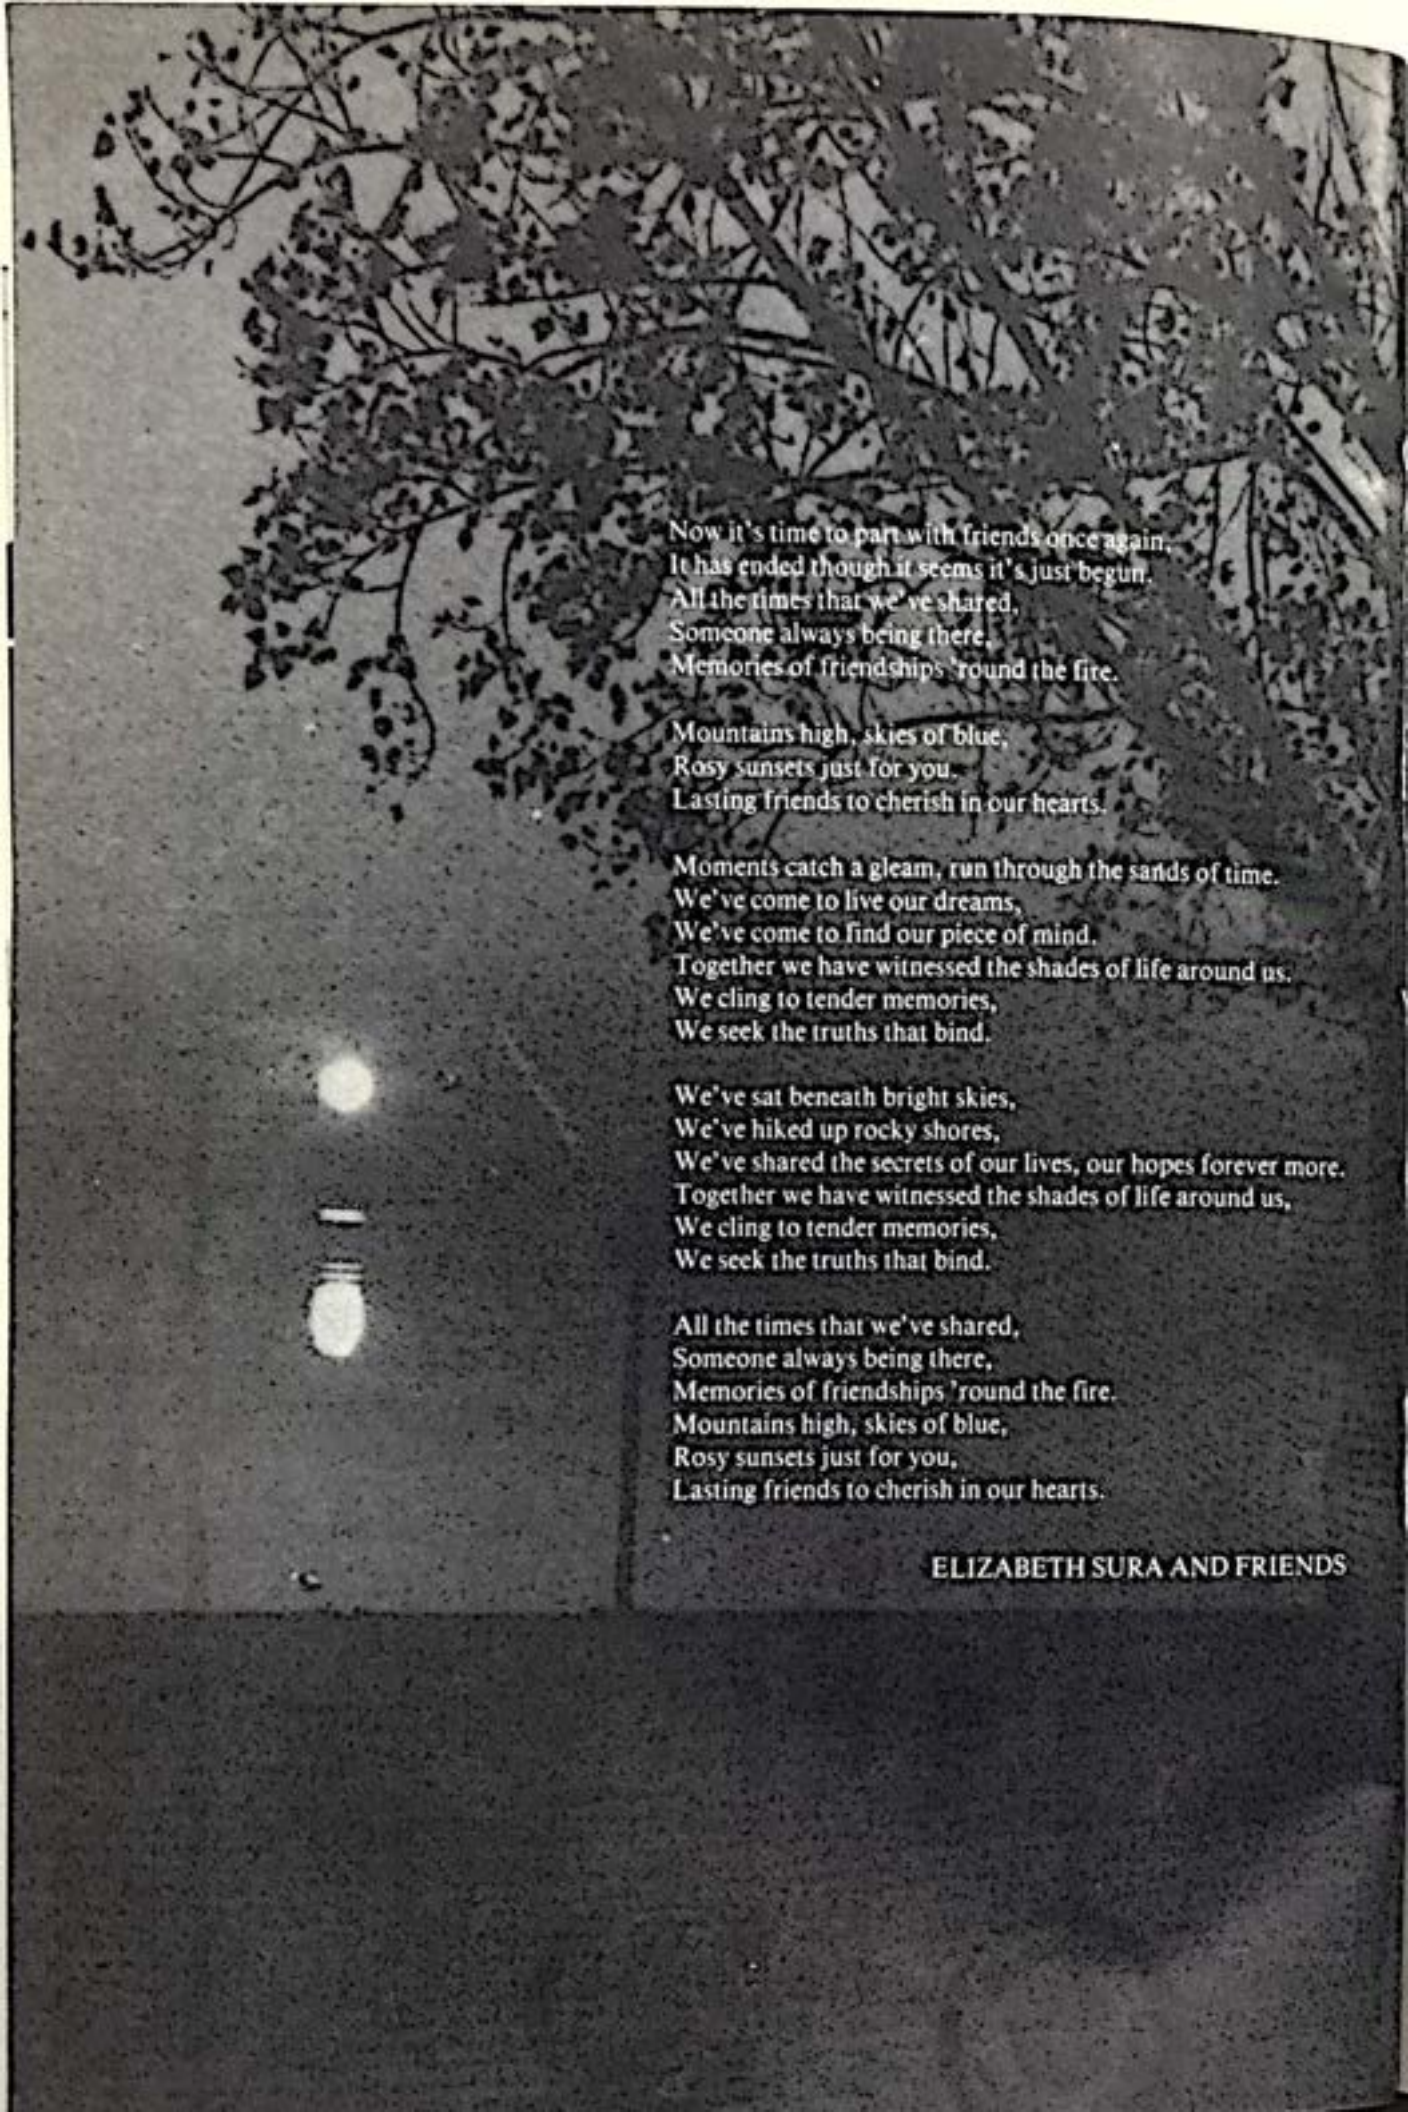

The Mothers' Guild is most grateful to Mrs. Carol David (Advisor), to Stacey Nesmith (Editor), and to the Memory Book staff for producing this excellent, reminiscence-filled publication. Our wish for each member of the 1986 graduating class is for continued good health, happiness and growing satisfaction in whatever you choose to do in the future.

Now it's time to part with friends once again,
It has ended though it seems it's just begun.
All the times that we've shared,
Someone always being there,
Memories of friendships 'round the fire.

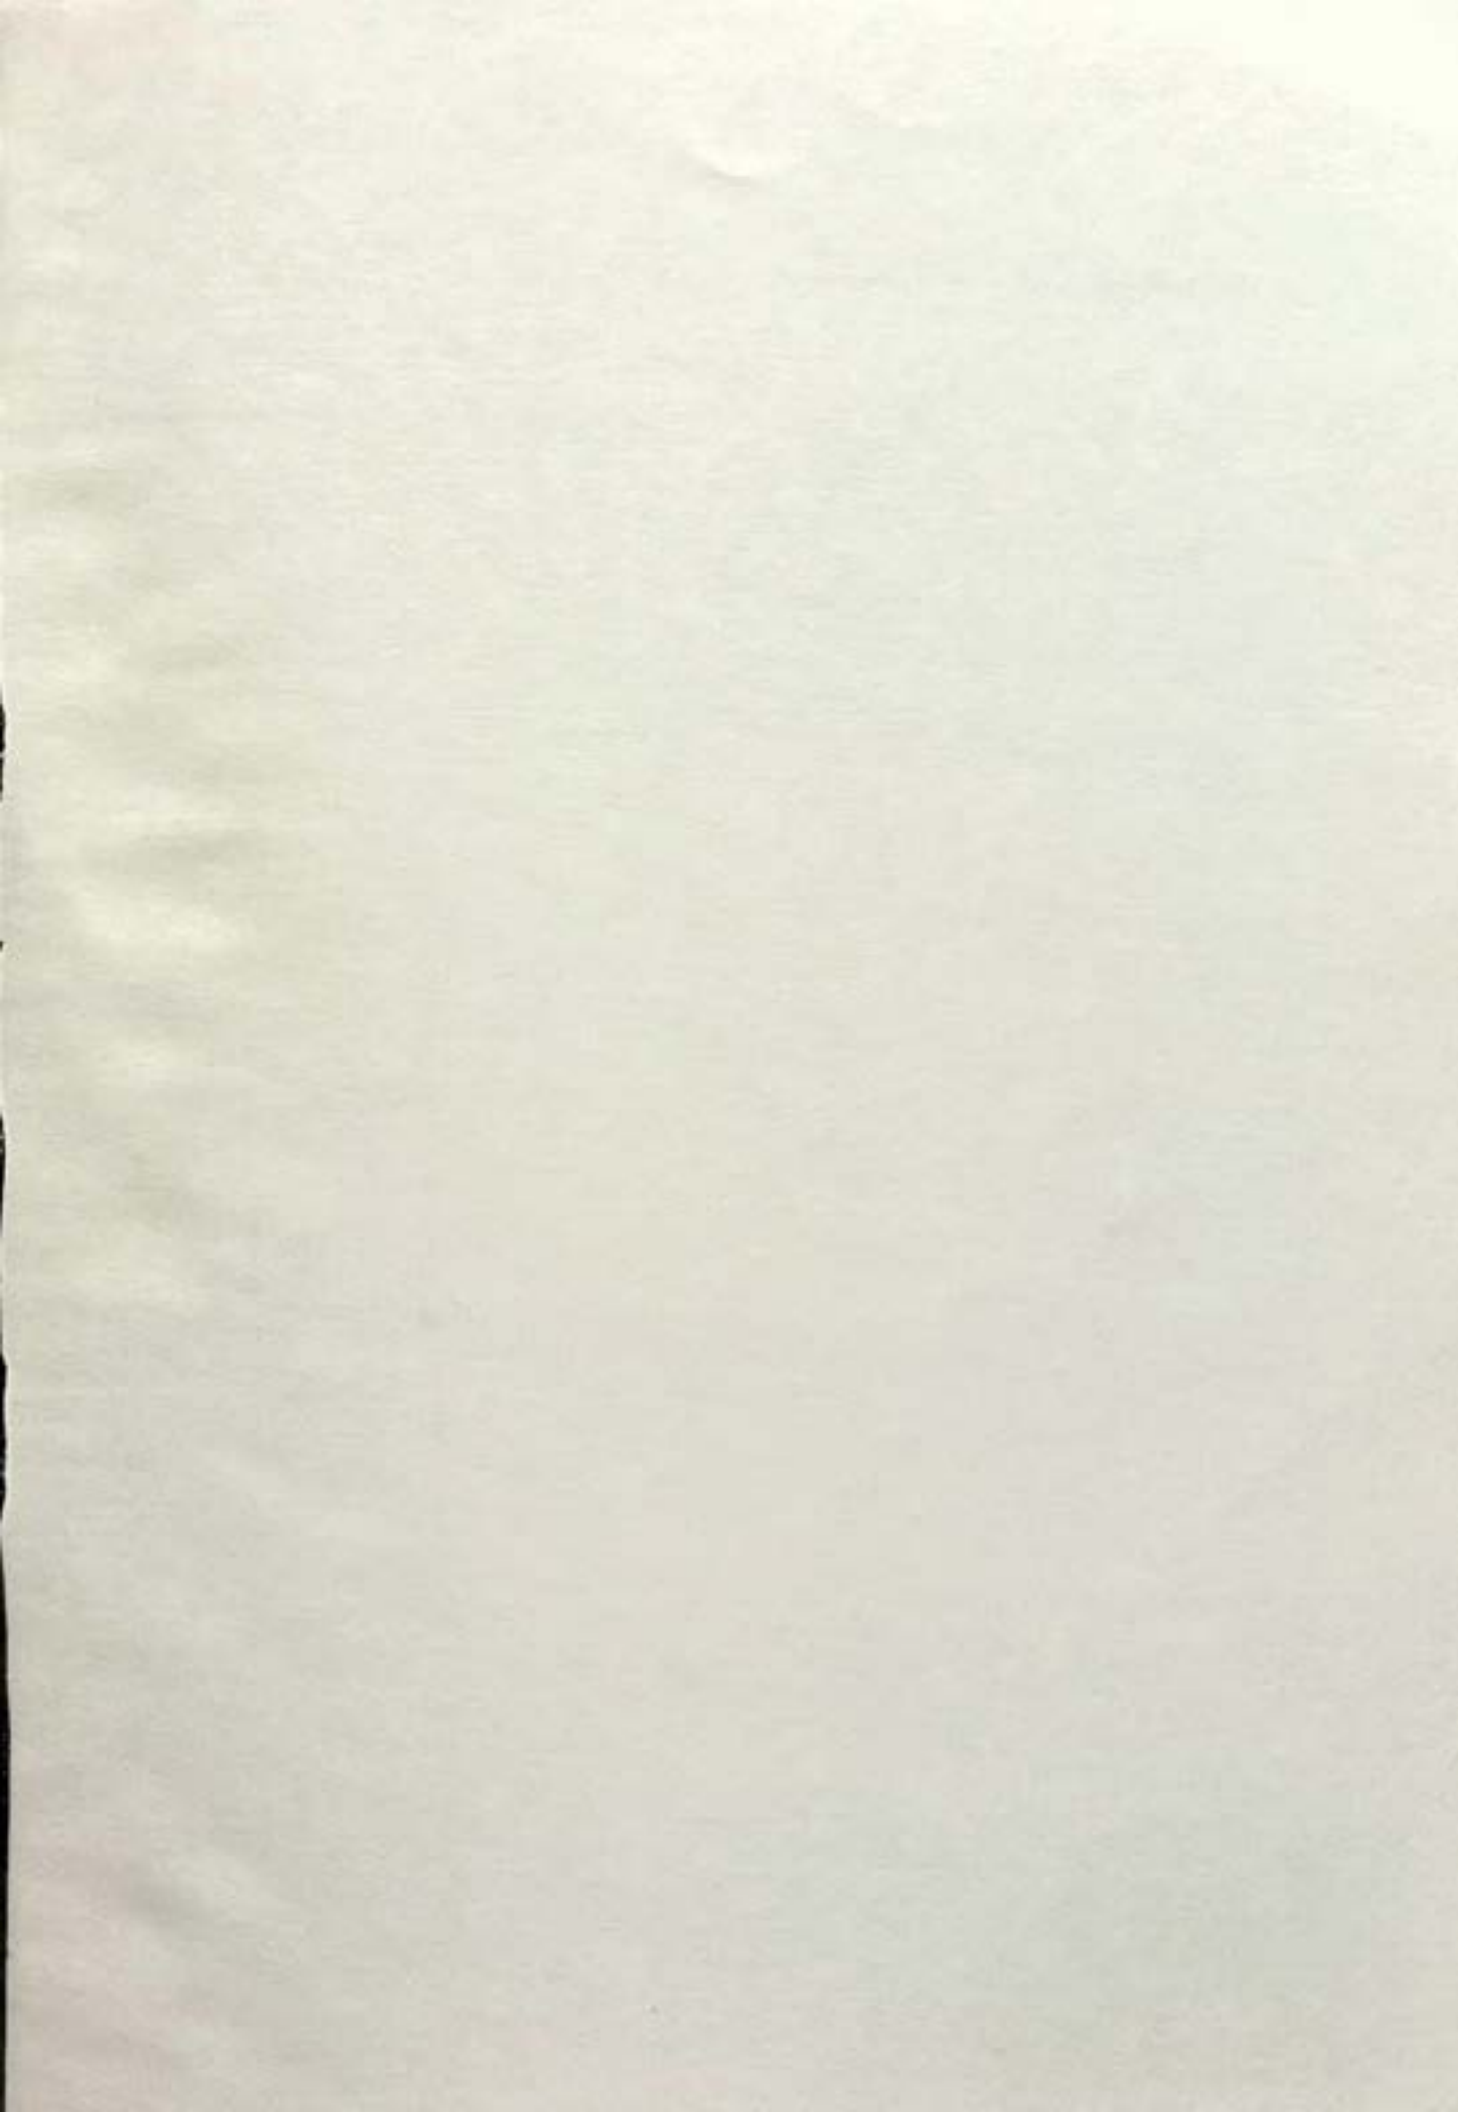

Mountains high, skies of blue,
Rosy sunsets just for you,
Lasting friends to cherish in our hearts.

Moments catch a gleam, run through the sands of time.
We've come to live our dreams,
We've come to find our piece of mind.
Together we have witnessed the shades of life around us.
We cling to tender memories,
We seek the truths that bind.

We've sat beneath bright skies,
We've hiked up rocky shores,
We've shared the secrets of our lives, our hopes forever more.
Together we have witnessed the shades of life around us,
We cling to tender memories,
We seek the truths that bind.

All the times that we've shared,
Someone always being there,
Memories of friendships 'round the fire.
Mountains high, skies of blue,
Rosy sunsets just for you,
Lasting friends to cherish in our hearts.
